

Student Evaluation for Tayvon Snowden in the subject of Physics (PHY-1A)

Prepared by Balogun Arinwaka (Gary C. Booker) of Aya
Educational Institute
Fall 2010

Student Habits Evaluation

Category	Criteria				Rating
Attendance	4 – Excellent: Always present and on time.	3 – Good: Few absences, seldom late	2 – Fair: Some absences and tardies	1 – Unacceptable: Too many tardies and absences	3
Engagement	4 – Excellent: Always engaged	3 – Good: Mostly Engaged	2 – Fair: Sometimes disengaged from class, but still productive and active	1 – Unacceptable: Considerably disengaged	4
Listening Skills	4 – Excellent: Always listens	3 – Good: Mostly Listens	2 – Fair: Listens sometimes.	1 – Unacceptable: Little to no listening	4
Behavior	4 – Excellent: Very respectful, obedient, and helpful to classmates	3 – Good: Respectful and follows instructions.	2 – Fair: Some considerable character development issues are present.	1 – Unacceptable	4
Preparation	4 – Excellent	3 – Good	2 – Fair	1 – Unacceptable: Seldom or never prepared.	4
					Average: 3.8

Academic Progress Evaluation

Category	Criteria					Rating
Classwork	4 – Minimum 90% Average	3 – Minimum 80% Average	2 – Minimum 70% Average	1 – Minimum 60% Average	0 – Below 60% Average	4
Homework	4 – Minimum 90% Average	3 – Minimum 80% Average	2 – Minimum 70% Average	1 – Minimum 60% Average	0 – Below 60% Average	4
Exams	4 – Minimum 90% Average	3 – Minimum 80% Average	2 – Minimum 70% Average	1 – Minimum 60% Average	0 – Below 60% Average	NA
Projects	4 – Minimum 90% Average	3 – Minimum 80% Average	2 – Minimum 70% Average	1 – Minimum 60% Average	0 – Below 60% Average	4
					Average:	4

Comments: Teyvon is very enthusiastic about learning. The integration of some of the aeronautics assignments into the physics class appears to add extra enthusiasm to Tayvon's class participation. He places an enormous amount of effort into his projects and is very vocal in class, asking many questions and making many comments that add to the classroom discussion.

Date: November 9th 2010