

10 Largest Man-Made Things

 rvcj.com/10-largest-man-made-things

Shaurya Kharb

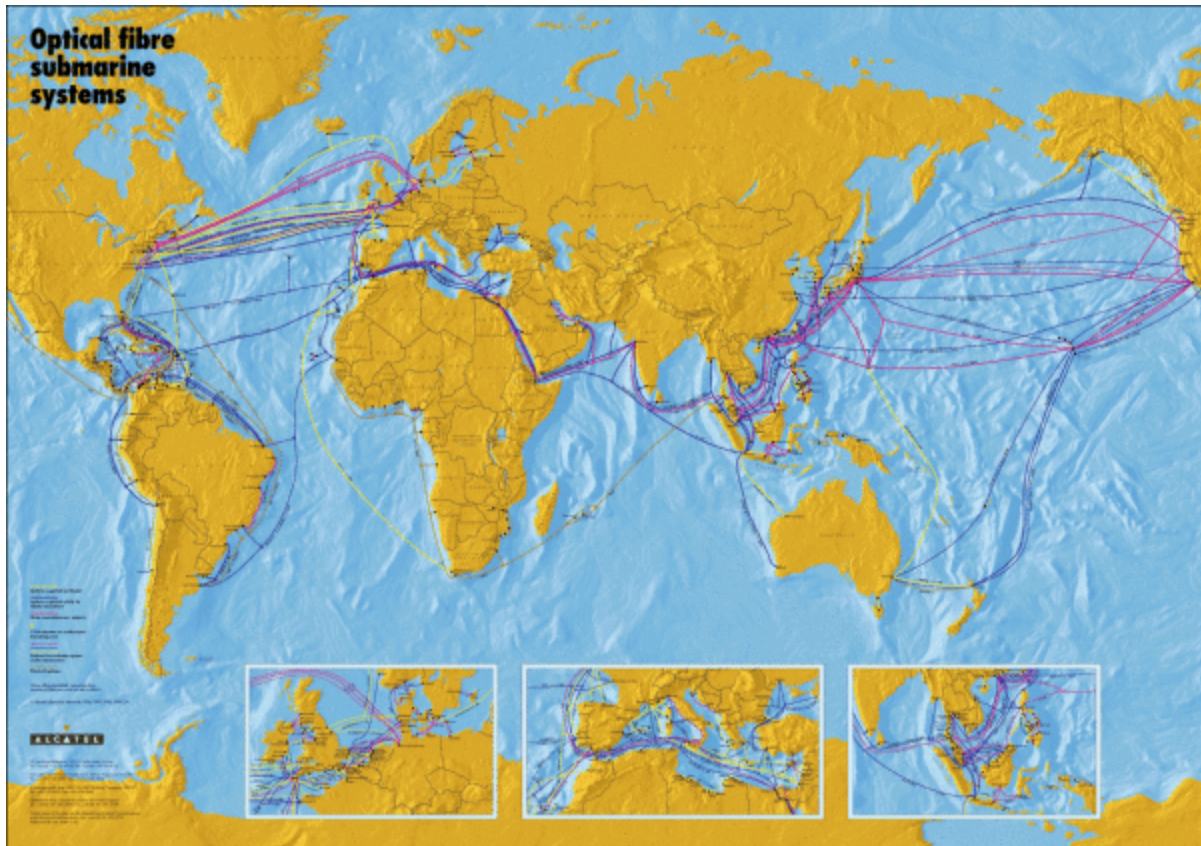

Sep 14, 2015

Humans have build some really amazing and interesting things, from Skyscrapers to Airports, submarines to ships. And we are still creating new and innovative things around the world. This is our list of 10 largest man-made things.

1. Object (Overall)

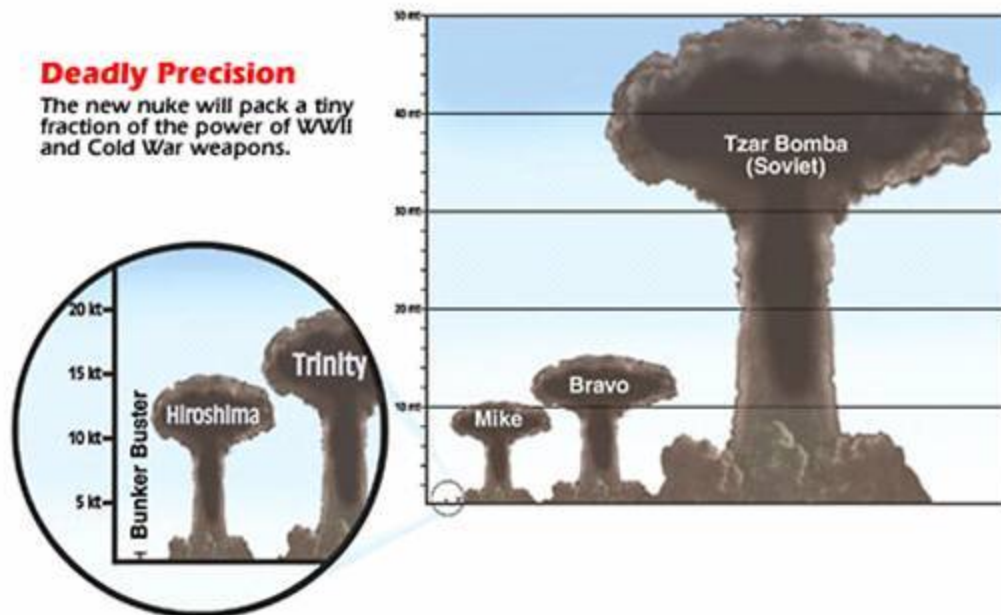

The largest man-made objects in the world are submarine communications cables. From San Francisco to Japan and San Francisco to New Zealand, the cables cover over 5,000 mi (8,000 km) with a total weight of more than 176 million pounds (80,000 metric tons) per cable.

Source

2. Bomb

The biggest bomb that was ever detonated was fifty megatons Tsar Bomb.

Source

3. Airport

King Fahd International Airport located in Dammam, Saudi Arabia, is the largest in the world.

Source

4. Passenger Ship

The Royal Caribbean's Oasis is the largest passenger ship, which can hold up to 5400 passengers.

Source

5. Airplane

The Antonov An-225 Mriya is a cargo aircraft that was designed by in Soviet Union's in 1980s.

Source

6. Aquarium

The Georgia Aquarium in Atlanta is the largest in the world housing more than 100,000 sea creatures.

Source

7. Castle

Prague Castle in the Czech Republic is the largest ancient castle in the world.

Source

8. Church

St. Peter's Basilica is a Late Renaissance church located in Vatican City and it took 120 years to complete (1506–1626).

Source

9. Crossword

The world's largest crossword has been built on the side of a tower block in Ukraine and is more than 30.5 meters (100 ft) high

Source

10. Wall

The Great Wall of China is the biggest wall in the world.

Source

Share Your Views In Comments Below

Top Heart Surgeon: This Simple Trick Helps Empty Your Bowels Every MorningGundry MD Bio Complete 3 Supplement

Sponsored

 Replay Video

 Learn More